DEEPENING YOUR CONVERSATION WITH GOD

BEN PATTERSON,
CONFERENCE LEADER

M A G N I F Y
2010

MARCH 19 & 20, 2010

UNIVERSITY REFORMED CHURCH

EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN

If you long to call your prayer time "sweet," but usually find it flat or without taste...

If you thirst to know God through prayer, but too often fail to find the time for prayer...

If you desire conversation with God, but tend toward a monologue instead...

Patterson's "I've been there too" reassurance will encourage and inspire you to turn your prayers from a spiritual discipline to a much-anticipated delight. He describes prayer as the work of Christian and explains why God covets your prayer and how it gets God's work done on earth.

Ben Patterson

A contributing editor for Christianity Today, Patterson is the author of several books focusing on growing and deepening the devotional and prayer life of Christians. During his six years as Dean of the Chapel at Hope College in Holland, Michigan, the volunteer chapel program grew from 50 students to more than 1,000. He is currently the Senior Campus Pastor at Westmont College in Santa Barbara, CA.

BEN PATTERSON ON PRAYER

We must learn that prayer is our chief work. Only then can our work become prayer: real service, real satisfaction. This simple truth alone explains why so many workers in the church find themselves exhausted, stretched to the breaking point, and burned out.
